Opening performance

Traditional Malay Kompang drums

We will kick start our Wonders of Singapore experience with a traditional Malay Kompang Drums performance.

Kompang is a traditional Islamic musical instrument like a tambourine originating from Ponorogo, East Java, Indonesia. Kompang drums performance is like a must have programme performance item for any celebratory festivity events in our Malay community.

With the announcement of the start of Wonders of Singapore, the airwaves is immediately filled with the drumming of traditional Malay Kompang drums performance.

After the performance on stage, they will lead our delegate contingent to guide everyone to follow them out and head towards River Wonders.

Five footway, “O” streets of Singapore

The five-foot way is a unique architectural feature in Singapore. Known in Mandarin as "wu jiao ji (五脚基)" and Malay as kaki lima, the ubiquitous five-foot way is often seen and used by us.

After Sir Stamford Raffles founded Singapore in 1819, he mandated in his town plan that all shophouses must have at least 5 feet of covered space in front to serve as protection from the sun and rain. Since the space in front of shophouses were wide, and there was a good flow of human traffic, our pioneering immigrants found that these five-foot ways were excellent places to do business. It also helped that these businesses were small, mobile, and could move at a moment's notice. Like this fortune & story teller, barber and cobbler.

We will transform the linkway & the entrance plaza of River Wonders back in time into a bustling Five Footway of wonders...

Five footway, "O" streets of Singapore

Decorative props with narrations and together with talents in olden day characters like the Samsui woman, trishaw riders and coolies will be roaming the area to set the right mood for the entrance to our Wonders of Singapore.

Five footway, sweets Singapore

One thing that makes Singapore stand out or be fondly remember by tourists is always our SG food!

Over here at the Five footway, we will set up some SG traditional local snacks and delights to let our guests to experience the traditional through the sense of taste!

Mama shop – Goodie bag distribution

We will setup a 'Mama Shop' at the entrance plaza where those who have yet to collect their comfort items goodie bag together with the activity card that can be in the shape of a tingkat to join in our journey experience. It will also be the place for our guests to redeem a unique souvenir after visiting and experiencing the wonders of Singapore!
